Editor, The Herts Advertiser

Zoe Hancock
Principal, Oaklands College

7.30pm Awards presentation

8.30pm Carriages

Welcome

Out of all the events I attend as editor throughout the year, this is the one I always look forward to the most. Not only am I pleased that the Herts Advertiser School Awards have grown in support and popularity over the past four years, but I also enjoy listening to the remarkable stories of achievements and success within our schools community.

I am therefore overjoyed that so many of the people nominated for the awards have joined us here in these beautiful grounds to celebrate all that is good within local education. I feel I must highlight the phenomenal response we have once again received to this year's awards, with more than 140 nominations across all categories, proof positive of how important our schools are within the St Albans district. I would also like to say a massive thank you to our sponsors this evening who have been instrumental in making this event happen. It is because of your generous support that this event continues to grow and we can celebrate our local success stories in this way. A few house keeping rules for you, there are no fire drills planned for this evening so should you hear the alarm please make your way calmly to one of the clearly marked fire exits and congregate in the car park out side. Also I would like to ask that you either switch off or turn on silent and mobile phones during the presentation.

So again I would like to thank you all for coming and hope that you enjoy the event.

Matt Adams
Editor, Herts Advertiser

Welcome

Oaklands College is very proud to be hosting the fourth Herts Advertiser School Awards at our St Albans Campus. I am sure we will be acknowledging some outstanding individuals.

This evening is an opportunity to honour teachers, staff and students who consistently go the extra mile to achieve success and reach their potential.

We are very fortunate in our district that we have so many talented and valued individuals in schools and we were overwhelmed by the number of nominations received for each award. Schools play such an integral role in the community and help to shape its future so it's very important to recognise dedication, outstanding individuals and the extremely high standard of our local education. I hope that you have a great time tonight and feel inspired by our award winners.

Building Work

The school with the most winning entries in this year's Herts Advertiser School Awards will win £2,000 worth of building work courtesy of sponsors Oaklands College. This amazing incentive is sure to up the stakes for the competition, which showcases the very best in our local education system.

Last year's winner of the £2,000 prize was Sir John Lawes School in Harpenden. Oaklands students finished work on replacing old and outdated toilets and washing facilities for staff and students last week.

Level 2 plumbing students including the pictured Kyle Parker-restored unusable toilets and handwashing facilities, excellent work experience for the students and new facilities for SJL.

MEET UP AT MALTINGS
